Continuation of Substance of Interview including description of the general nature of what was discussed:

The Examiner mentioned to Mr. Cannuscio that he was considering issuing a Lack of Unity requirement in view of the claim amendments and upon reconsideration. However, given the prosecution history of this long-pending application, the Examiner attempted to suggest a more limited subject matter that could potentially be pursued for further examination. This much is spelled out in the attached fax. Mr. Cannuscio stated that he will contact the inventor and get back to the Examiner by Friday, 10/14/2005. On said Friday, the Examiner was informed by Mr. Cannuscio's assistant, Laura McNeily, that a reply from the inventor/applicant was not yet available. The Examiner stated that he had to act on the case.

Comments:

The following is a scope of claimed subject matter that I feel I can further pursue for final patentability determination. The claims have been significantly changed from the first examination on the merits, and I am considering issuing a lack of unity requirement. But in view of the prolonged prosecution history of this case, I thought I'd try this first, for sake of expedited prosecution.

Please let me know if applicant would agree to limit the claims as proposed below, if and when such subject matter were to be deemed allowable.

Claim 1. (Conditionally proposed) A fish attracting composition comprising an effective fish-attractive amounts of:

- (i) a steroid of the androstene family;
- (ii) at least one salt of trimethylamine; and
- (iii) at least one alkanolic acid selected from the group consisting of C4 to C5 alkanolic acids and C8 to C10 substituted alkanolic acids.

Claim 3. (Conditionally proposed) A composition as claimed in claim 1, wherein the composition further comprises a carrier selected from the group consisting of aliphatic alcohol and propylene glycol.

Claim 4. (Conditionally proposed) A composition as claimed in claim 1, wherein said at least one alkanolic acid is isovaleric acid.

~~Claim 10. (Conditionally proposed) A composition as claimed in claim 1, wherein the composition further comprises all~~

Delete claims 2, 10, 11-20; amend specification to recite PCT application info and 371 status; and make any other spelling, grammatical or corresponding changes to conform to above subject matter.

NEED ASSISTANCE FROM APPLICANT FOR CLAIM LANGUAGE INTERPRETATION: In order to pass muster, I need to establish that "steroid of the androstene family" would be understood by the ordinary skilled artisan so that he/she would understand what is excluded or included by that language. I used that language because there was no other choice. If applicant has some good definition or teaching in the art for such language, it would be greatly appreciated. Otherwise, such language may be a problem.
